

MINISTRY OF EDUCATION AND SCIENCE OF RUSSIAN FEDERATION

«Far Eastern Federal University»
(FEFU)
School of law

FEFU Campus, Ajax, Vladivostok, 690000, e-mail: law@dvfu.ru

LETTER OF PROMOTION

Explore mastery of law in Russia,

Dear sir/madam!

It is no secret that modern life sometimes opens up great possibilities for curious and smart people of all ages to learn and improve their professionalism through international educational experience. It is extremely important for those interested in carrying out international business to study legal conditions and governmental regulations of their partners' countries not just by fortunate (or not?) practical experience but through proper educational guidance of the best university one can find around.

Far Eastern Federal University, School of Law is proud to introduce to you our new International Master Program "Russian Business and Investment Law".

1. PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

Brief catalogue description:

Topicality of presented program is defined by recent raise in investing and financial activity performed by corporations of China, South Korea and other Asia-Pacific countries on the markets of Russian Federation and, more specifically, Russian Far East. In that case we continue to observe growing necessity in widening Russian legal knowledge among business environment of interested partners. We assume that our considerable role in legal education and research of legal matters may be of invaluable use for foreign partners' better understanding of Russian private law regulations, comparative legal analysis and both legal and business practice in Russia.

LLM program "Russian Business and Investment Law" (RBIL) designed for training of high-class lawyers employed in companies and organizations performing international business activities and transactions with Russian partners. Structure of program includes general courses on basics of Russian legal system and its specific measurements from one side, and peculiar courses enclosed on legal and business practice in the Russian Far East. To emerge common and different in legal regulation of business parties' countries we also involved comparative studies which is useful for better understanding of legal correlation between countries. We offer such courses as: Foreign Language in Professional Sphere (Russian); Legal Regulation of Foreign Investments in Russia and Asia Pacific; Legal Status of Special Economic Zones in Russia; Litigation and Arbitration with Foreign Participants etc. We also attract the best academics and practitioners of legal sphere in our region. Among them are acknowledged experts in both international public and private law Professor Vyacheslav V. Gavrilov and Natalia G. Prisekina, Senior Partner and Director of the Vladivostok branch office of Russin & Vecchi International Legal Counsellors.

Presented program is taught in English. Educational focus is directed towards foreign graduate students interested in acquiring knowledge in Russian law and business and investment practice in its complexity and practical value. Russian-speaking graduate students and citizens employed in Russian business and governance are also invited for studying.

Expected student learning outcomes:

- 1) To analyze and understand comprehensive processes and directions of legal regulation in sphere of international business and investment in Russia.
- 2) To possess complex knowledge of technicalities of international business regulation in Russia.
- 3) To see into content of Russian branch-oriented legal regulation.
- 4) To know legal provision for international economic cooperation between Russia and Asia-Pacific countries.
- 5) To operate practical skills needed for successful business transactions in Russia.

2. ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

All intransit candidates should provide their graduate diploma of established in Russian Federation or another country standard. English language skills sufficient for participation in high-education program are also required. IELTS and TOEFL certificates may be considered as conditions for priority in entrance.

Candidates responding to those requirements should pass the entrance examination in Theory of Government and Rights which will be held in the form of an interview in English.

3. FOR MORE INFORMATION PLEASE CONTACT:

1. Professor Vyacheslav V. Gavrilov, Head of RBIL master program:
gavrilov.vv@dvfu.ru

2. Roman I. Dremluga, Vice Dean for Strategic Development, FEFU,
School of Law: dremluga.ri@dvfu.ru

FEFU Vice President
for International Affairs
Dean & Director
FEFU School of law
S.J.D., LL.D.

Vladimir I. Kurilov