BENEFITS OF MEMBERSHIP

The International Association of Law Schools (IALS) was incorporated in October 2005; its voting members will include educational institutions offering degrees in law. Article 3 of the Charter describes the details of our membership, which can be found on our website, click here to view. The benefits of membership are:

- Invitation to attend our Annual Meetings, Global Law Deans' Forum, and Regional Law Deans' Forum at a discounted registration fee.
- Financial assistance to our meetings, forum, workshops (travel stipends are awarded on a need basis and/or merit).
- Participate as a speaker, moderator, or chair at one of our Conferences, Forum, Meetings, and/or Workshops.
- Receiving IALS Newsletters, Bulletins and Announcements containing articles of interest, announcements of programs at other member schools, and notices of possible exchange agreements.
- Access to Groupsite – our own social network site.
- Access to delegate papers, minutes, reports from past Conferences, Forum, Meetings, and/or Workshops.
- Free postings on our Job Board on our website.
- Opportunity for faculty to apply and participate in our numerous committees.
- Opportunity to collaborate with other schools and faculty.
- Participation in the development of curriculum and other guidelines to adapt legal education to the needs of diverse cultures and societies and be recognized as a school that subscribes to such guidelines.

Benefits for your Faculty:

- Apply and participate in our Visiting Professor & Scholar Program.
- Be a part of a network of law schools that cooperate in various types of faculty, student, and scholarly exchange.
- Join and/or Chair a Doctrinal Study Group in doctrinal faculty member's choice.
- Opportunity to engage in IALS' new programs, which offer travel and work stipends.
- Opportunity for faculty to post drafts of, and completed, scholarly articles on Groupsite and seek comments from colleagues throughout the world.
- Opportunity for your faculty to participate in "by invitation only" international gatherings of leading legal educators on topics of scholarly or pedagogical interest.

Benefits for your Students:

- Build long life friendships with their counterparts.
- Apply and participate as an IALS Intern.
- Our Student Law Institute Committee is currently developing a Student Law Institute for members' students.
